Some things change and we are certainly seeing that in our lives every day in 2020. Should we, or shouldn’t we? The synod decided that we shouldn’t have a synod convention this year. (Say “Hi!” to the ladies from last year.) Now we start thinking about Mission Rallies to come. Should we, or shouldn’t we? However, there are some things that do NOT change. That is the need for food and the need for the Gospel that the children both in India and Peru have come to depend on us to provide – every day in 2020.
